Lunations and Long Term Aspects

The New Moon this month on October 7 is in fellow Cardinal Sign, Libra, your 10th House of status, reputation, public image and career. This will have a more pronounced effect for those of you with birthdays within a day or so of January 5. There is a serious tone involved to this lunation that could relate to news or information, especially for those born between December 28 - 31; expect to see a few challenges in this part of your life.

As you're probably already too much aware, Pluto has settled down for the long-haul in Capricorn where he will remain for several years to come. With Mercury squaring Pluto for this lunation, albeit widely, expect to encounter something from your past that relates to your status or career and causes some deep introspections or perhaps dealing with something you've kept buried. Power struggles could be involved as well.

Mars and Venus are conjunct in passionate Scorpio, your 11th House of friends, group interactions and goals. This obviously isn't a very sexy part of your life, but you may find encounters with members of the opposite sex in this part of your life could be more intense than usual. If you have a significant other, this implies your joint activities in these venues could be quite effective. This is a favorable time to talk about your shared goals, if nothing else.

Jupiter and Uranus are conjunct in Pisces, your 3rd House of thoughts, ideas, neighbors, siblings and short or familiar journeys. Both are retrograde, indicating you'll be examining your beliefs and may want to break away from something that lies in this part of your life or make some rapid changes that come up unexpectedly. Disruptions, disturbances and sudden changes to your local routine are possible or that involve your siblings or neighbors, or this energy may only be experienced on the mental plane. Whichever turns out to be the case, there will be some effect on you at a personal level, perhaps unearthing old issues you thought were resolved, yet aren't.

The Full Moon on October 22 is in fellow Cardinal Sign, Aries, your 4th House of home environment, past and present. This should be a culmination, ending or shift to a new phase with regarding to something in this part of your life. This is likely to involve something from your past, perhaps old baggage, but the chances of resolving it once and for all are quite good. Your financial goals may take a bit of a hit or perhaps something you've been wanting or even needing. Your drive to accomplish something with regard to your neighbors, siblings, or ideas is favored, however, and may involve a few surprises and changes that could be significant. Sudden changes to your status are possible which will also affect your homelife in some manner and require a change of course or adjustments. Nonetheless, these changes will have a pleasant effect in the long haul.

Short Term Aspects

October 1: Responsibilities are highlighted which will change your status or public image in some way. News with regard to a legal matter, relocation, higher learning, or which relate to you core beliefs in some way will require some adjustments. Something related to your neighbors, siblings, or current ideas is likely to come along as well.

October 2: Surprises or disruptions are highly likely due to unexpected news or information obtained yesterday.

October 3: Interactions with members of the opposite sex will be particularly intense today, particularly as they relate to a group setting or perhaps shared goals. Mercury goes into Libra, facilitating information and conversations related to your status, career or reputation.

October 4: Taking action with regard to a group activity or one of your goals will take an unexpected turn or cause disruptions. Whatever is going on with your status, reputation or career will create some financial issues.

October 5: Thoughts or information with regard to your status will require dealing with something from your past and resolving it before you can move forward. A female friend, sibling, or neighbor may have some surprises.

October 6: Your status, reputation or career may create some irritations with a female coworker or friend or perhaps your financial goals.

October 7: New Moon in Libra as described above.

October 8: Venus goes retrograde until November 17. This will affect primarily your friends, coworkers, group interactions, and goals with some effect on your public image or status. The last time Venus went retrograde in Scorpio was October 2002. If you can remember what was going on in your life at that time, you're likely to see something similar come your way during this time. If whatever was going on back then wasn't resolved, you can expect it to present itself to you again for resolution. Serious conversations are likely today along with some irritating thoughts with regard to your finances.

October 9: Ideas or information related to your status and finances are available so put it to good use.

October 10: Irritating news from a female friend or associate could affect your status.

October 11: Moving forward with your goals will encounter some resistance today, perhaps due to some unresolved issue from your past or old baggage you need to get rid of in order to progress. Additional emphasis on your status and moving forward with your goals will present some irritations.

October 13: Money goals may experience some surprises or sudden change.

October 15: More irritating information with regard to pursuing your goals or perhaps involving a group activity or friend is likely to surface.

October 17: More information with regard to your status, career or reputation will come to light which will necessitate a change of course.

October 18: News that relates to your finances or something you want or need should be favorable today. Ethical issues that relate to a neighbor or sibling may require some adjustments on your part.

October 19: More information which may be unexpected will require that you either justify your position or change direction. Favorable financial news is possible.

October 20: Responsibilities may get in the way of what you'd really like to do today. Mercury goes into Scorpio, your 11th House of friends, group interactions, networking and goals, facilitating communications and information in that part of your life.

October 21: Expect to make some adjustment today unexpectedly which may require some innovative solutions. Moving forward with your goals is favored as you expand your thoughts to think outside the box. Responsibilities and goals may clash again.

October 22: Full Moon in Aries as described above. Finances may get in the way of what you want to do. Information related to your goals will help you resolve some old issues.

October 23: The Sun enters Scorpio, bringing emphasis to your group interactions, friends, coworkers and goals.

October 24: Expect some surprises today, even if they're limited to the mental plane.

October 25: A conversation with a female or news regarding your financial goals will have significance today.

October 26: Information regarding your friends or goals will expand your view of things significantly. Examine your deepest feelings on the matter and anything that may be holding you back which you need to resolve.

October 27: Responsibilities to your material well-being may be emphasized today due to annoying information with regard to your goals.

October 28: Mars goes into Sagittarius, bringing his energy and drive to your 12th House of angels and demons. Be particularly careful during this transit that you don't dig yourself into a hole or undermine your own efforts. Also be alert to anyone who's trying to undermine you, especially someone whom you thought you could trust. Unexpected news or ideas may come your way.

October 29: A female friend or associate may have significance today, particularly with regard to your goals.
