Lunations and Long-term Aspects

The New Moon on September 8th occurs in Virgo, your 8th House of sex, transitions, transformations, debt and shared resources. If your birthday is within a day or so of February 4 this will be even more likely to bring or even force a change of course toward something new which will have a lasting and possibly even profound effect on your life. That Cardinal T-Square between Saturn, Pluto and the Uranus/Jupiter pair continues, another driver for significant change, letting go of the past and its associated baggage and rebuilding some part of your life. This may relate to furthering your education, substantial changes to your beliefs and expectations, the involvement of another culture or even relocating. You may have been thinking about such things for quite a while, but now you'll be able to find the motivation or possibly the resources to pursue it.

Learning from your past, exploring the meaning of your dreams, recognizing those individuals who try to undermine you in a sneaky, subtle manner, and seeking more time to yourself for pondering things of an unseen or spiritual nature are all going to be ongoing themes which will help you reinvent yourself at a new level. If your finances have been topsy-turvy lately it may be because you haven't been on the right path. A close examination of what the root causes are is critical.

Remember, if you keep on doing what you've always done, you'll keep on getting what you've always got. A significant change can help you see this part of your life more clearly, set the proper boundaries in place, and allow you to see your situation in a new and different way which allows you to find an effective solution. This will involve some major adjustments that won't necessarily be easy. Aquarians are Air Signs which are more driven by logic than emotion or intuition, but this is a time when it will be important to learn to listen to your inner voice, watch for inspiration, and follow your heart when it's in a deadlock with your head. Mercury is retrograde for the New Moon, implying you need to revise your plans or rethink them in some way.

The Full Moon on September 23 is in Aries, your 3rd House of thoughts, ideas, siblings, neighbors and short journeys. This lunation will be the strongest for those of you with birthdays within a day or so of January 21. A Full Moon typically brings an ending or culmination which will be in this part of your life. It could be as simple as leaving an old idea behind, the end of a phase with a sibling or neighbor, or an end to some other local activity that required that you run lots of errands. Moving forward with something that will affect your status is likely this month, especially if it involves a relationship. This is going to involve quite a few challenges but if you make it through that part opportunities will await a month or so down the road. By this time Mercury is out of retrograde, which will make moving forward easier.

Short-term Aspects

September 3: Find some time today to seriously consider exactly what it is you want and need. If what you've been doing up until now hasn't been working, now is a favorable time to come up with a new plan.

September 4: A new sense of optimism will help you identify what you're really looking for. Feel free to dream, but don't forget to get your feet back on the ground before moving in that direction.

September 5: An annoyance will throw a speedbump your way and block your path. Don't be discouraged, it will be of short duration.

September 7: Expect a disruption or surprise of some sort that relates to your income, possessions, or needs and your current ambitions. This will necessitate a change of course or direction but doesn't mean it's a no-go.

September 8: New Moon in Virgo as described above. If you haven't yet figured out what that adjustment or course change is, expect some clues today.

September 9: Venus goes into Scorpio today which will bring good fortune your way with respect to your career, status, reputation or public image. It's an excellent day to interview for a job or interact with the public. It's also very favorable for some insights or inspiration which will give you the push you need to go in a new direction.

September 10: Jupiter backs into Pisces through retrograde motion. If you've been having financial problems, take a very close look at the true reasons. Make sure that you're being completely honest with yourself and that you're involved with others who are as well. You may also be capable of earning more than you realize. Take a look at your self-confidence and what it will take to progress in your job or career.

September 11: Mercury comes out of retrograde today which should help get your plans off the ground.

September 12: Continue to ponder your status and any self-limiting behaviors you may have. If you've been your own worst enemy now is the time to recognize it and make the needed changes so you can move forward. Believe in yourself.

September 13: Be prepared to make another major change of direction to break away from anything that's holding you back. Taking action is favored which will have an important impact to changing your financial situation.

September 14: Pluto comes out of retrograde today which will start bringing anything inappropriately buried to the surface over the coming months.

September 15: Mars enters Scorpio, a Sign he ruled before the discovery of Pluto. This energy will assist you in pursuing your career goals or some other activity that relates to your status or reputation. Watch your mouth and temper, however, if you don't have a way to express this energy in a favorable manner because it could turn against you. In other words you may feel as if you're under attack if you're not taking action on your own.

September 18: Expect the unexpected, particularly as it relates to your income or possessions. Taking action to clear something from your past that is holding you back is favored.

September 19: More adjustments today as you see something as it really is, not as you wanted it to be.

September 21: Whatever is going on with your finances, possessions or needs will take an unexpected turn. Recognize the source and what needs to be done to rectify it.

September 23: Full Moon in Aries today as described above just as the Sun goes into fellow Air Sign, Libra, bringing emphasis to your beliefs, pursuing knowledge, other cultures, or even a relocation.

September 25: Any obstacles you encounter today may be self-imposed, so take a close look before blaming someone else. If it's definitely not you, then look for a false friend who's trying to undermine your efforts.

September 30: There's a strong emphasis on responsibility and having structure in an important area of your life. Having a good reputation may come to your rescue and bring something favorable your way for your finances.
