Lunations and Long-term Aspects

The New Moon this month is on September 15 in nextdoor neighboring sign, Virgo, your 12th house of inspiration, enlightenment, spirituality, confinement, seclusion, hidden enemies, the collective consciousness and self-undoing or what I call the "angels and demons" house. Since this house is so diverse it's hard to say how it may manifest but watch for something new in this part of your life, perhaps a new insight or feeling of connection with the world at large. Mercury is in this house as well and it's the sign of Mercury's dignity and exaltation so he operates exceptionally well which will help open up channel of communication with your higher self, the cosmos or some other realm that holds information for you.

As noted last month the Uranus - Pluto square is still in effect so remember to keep an eye on that. Both are in fellow Cardinal Signs and natural angular houses giving them a lot of action-oriented energy. Pluto is in your 4th house of home environment, cultural roots, memories, endings and new beginnings. At the least Pluto is likely to push you toward some serious house cleaning, figuratively and literally. Uranus is in your polar sign, Aries, where he is likely to be stirring things up in your relationships. This can manifest in a variety of ways including constant disruptions or demands from people close to you. Relationships are extremely important to Librans but make sure you don't allow others to tromp all over you and take advantage of your good nature. Your needs are important, too, and if you constantly put others first you will eventually have a meltdown. Librans strive for fairness and balance but when pushed too far you may snap and get into "an eye for an eye" mode which often doesn't end well. If your birthday is right around September 29 - 30 this aspect is forming a T-square with your natal Sun so you are more likely to encounter something along these lines.

Venus, your sign ruler, is trining Uranus from Leo which further increases the likelihood of this energy manifesting in your life. Leo is your 11th house of friends so these may be the ones who keep things hopping. Being a trine it's less onerous than a square or opposition but Uranus can still be disruptive, even in a good way. Sometimes a Venus - Uranus aspect manifests as numerous interruptions from people you love. In other words, all of a sudden everyone is calling you, asking you to help with something, etc. Life can get very hectic. If this is the case feel good about setting some boundaries and sticking up for yourself.

Mars is in Scorpio, your 2nd house of income, possessions, finances, needs, comforts and pleasures which brings a lot of energy to this part of your life, especially with Mars dignified. Scorpio is all about passion so pursuing such things will have a little extra oomph behind them. Mars is quincunx Jupiter in fellow Air Sign, Gemini, which will ramp this up even more. Gemini is your 9th house of higher learning, long-distance travel, beliefs, expectations, politics, religion, other cultures, legal matters and relocation. Jupiter in a bit of a loose cannon in Gemini where he may be a bit over-confident or have more ideas than can possibly be pursued. There's a good chance that you want to do something related to your 9th house but finances are holding you back, as much as you want to pursue them. Thus, the quincunx, which usually indicates the need for an adjustment or change of course.

The Full Moon on September 29 is in Aries, your 7th house of close relationships and conjunct Uranus which will bring a few surprises. The Sun, Mercury and Saturn are all in your sign, giving you a lot of energy to figure things out and arrange them properly. Of course the lunation is also forming a T-square with Pluto, so it is definitely giving Uranus and Pluto a big boost. If it's your birthday within a day or so of the 29th you can look forward to an interesting year as this will follow you via your solar return. Venus is still in Leo and squaring Mars which suggests that a friend, group or organization is going to cost you some money.

On the positive side, there's a lot of inspiration out there. Mercury is trine the asteroid, Atlantis, which brings communications and profound insight together; Atlantis excels at promoting a form of clairvoyance where you can see how something will turn out in a nearly prophetic manner. This will be the strongest if your birthday is around October 15. Further supporting inspiration is a trine from Saturn and Neptune. These two planets are usually antithetical but when they work together than can manifest your dreams or structure your inspired ideas into reality. Neptune is in Pisces, your 6th house of work, service, health and pets so that is where it's most likely to show up. Atlantis is in Aquarius, your 5th house of ego definition, creativity, entertainment, speculation, children and romance so you may have the advantage of knowing the end result of any endeavors you're pursuing in that realm.
