Lunations and Long-term Aspects

This month's Full Moon is on December 6 in your sign, Gemini, and conjunct your natal Sun if your birthday is right around June 5. Look for an ending, culmination or shift to a new phase of something in your life at the personal level. Meanwhile the Sun is in Sagittarius, your polar sign and 7th house of close relationships including your significant other, close friends and relatives, business partners, business professionals, competitors and open enemies. Your sign ruler, Mercury, is there conjunct the Sun will enhance communications though you may find that there is more coming in than you have a chance to respond to. Venus in that sign suggests favorable interactions, particularly with siblings and neighbors. You may be so busy with friends that it's downright hectic but there are definitely opportunities there to network and connect. Pluto continuing to transit your 8th house suggests ongoing transformations, some of which may bring about a change of course, perhaps through those connections with friends and associates. These could come at what seems like the wrong time but some effort on your part can turn it into the proverbial blessing in disguise.

On December 8 Jupiter stations retrograde in Leo, your 3rd house of thoughts, ideas, siblings, neighbors and local travel. Be sure to watch for an opportunity if your birthday is right around June 15. Jupiter retrograde typically brings ruminations that relate to your attitude, philosophy of life or opinion regarding something in that house. Based on the station chart, take a close look at your needs as well because this is an excellent time to talk about them with someone close to you and perhaps bring about a change of direction. If you have obligations to a group or friends, they may be a challenge at this time, but communications with them are favored as well. This is a time to take a close look at how much you do for others and whether or not that is reciprocated in an appropriate manner. If you've been over-doing it lately make sure you're not wearing yourself out with activities that have relatively little meaning or emotional satisfaction.

December 21 is loaded with astrological events starting with Uranus stationing direct. He is currently in partile (same degree) square with Pluto which tends to stir things up a bit, depending on how it hits your chart. If your birthday is right around June 3 you are likely to see something from this aspect but it won't necessarily be difficult. Again, it could bring an opportunity from a friend and a transformational change of direction even though there will be some challenges in there as well. While Pluto transits Capricorn one of his functions is to expose corporate and government corruption which we have certainly seen plenty of the past few years. It goes without saying that this is a target-rich environment. The square with Uranus brings public outcry and rebellion with regard to these entities, which have certainly seen as well. You may have a significant role to play in such activities which will be of great benefit to you as well as others. With Mars in fellow Air Sign, Aquarius, your 9th house of higher learning, philosophy of life, beliefs, expectations, other cultures, long-distance travel, and publishing this is an excellent time to take action on something in that venue, particularly if your birthday is right around June 4.

Eighteen minutes and twenty-two seconds after Uranus stations the Sun goes into Capricorn marking the winter solstice in the Northern Hemisphere and summer solstice in the Southern Hemisphere. Whenever the Sun enters a Cardinal sign (Aries, Cancer, Libra, Capricorn) it starts a new season, both literally and figuratively since these signs are typically where action begins. The "Ingress Chart" for these is used for such things as weather prediction such as found in the Old Farmer's Almanac and also used in mundane and geo-political astrology. There is a lot of energy in Capricorn as well as that Uranus - Pluto square which will influence the entire quarter to come.

Two hours, thirty-two minutes and fifty seconds after the Capricorn Ingress the Moon joins the Sun for this month's New Moon. If your birthday is right around May 22 this could bring a shift of direction, need to justify your current position or even a Catch-22 situation. Remember that Capricorn is your 8th house of transformations, intense experiences, sex, death and rebirth, debt, shared resources and things you suppress so all that energy in that sign which includes the Sun, Moon, Mercury, Pluto and Venus, are likely to bring something your way in that part of your life. If there is a change or shift you've been wanting to make this is an excellent time to do so, especially with the added incentive of it being near the start of a New Year where your goals for such can be established as well.
