Lunations and Long-term Aspects

This month's Full Moon is on December 6 in Gemini, your 8th house of transformations, sex, death and rebirth, debt, shared resources, intense experiences and things you suppress suggesting an ending, culmination or shift to a new phase of something in this part of your life. If your birthday is right around November 7 you are more likely to see these effects. The Sun, Mercury and Venus are all in Sagittarius, your 2nd house of income, possessions, finances, needs, comforts and pleasures which should bring information your way regarding something in this part of your life. This information, in turn, can contribute to some changes to your thinking which have an important affect.

Uranus is in Aries, your 6th house of work, health, service and pets, where he has probably been stirring things up a bit with a variety of surprises, disruptions and disturbances. This new information, however, can have a favorable effect on this part of your life, even though you may have to make a few changes in how you think about this part of your life. Jupiter is getting ready to station retrograde in a few days in your 10th house of career, reputation, public image and status which could assist in this part of your life as well, particularly if your birthday is right around November 16.

The actual station occurs December 8 in fellow Fixed sign, Leo. Jupiter RX internalizes his energy and turns it toward rumination about your beliefs and expectations which will be directed toward this part of your life. Jupiter rules your 2nd house of income and so forth so this comes into play as well. This is a time when you might want to think about the place money plays in your life, how you earn it and whether or not it is working as expected. More information relative to your income and work is still out there with hints at a change that could involve more emotional satisfaction and where your heart is.

December 21 is a busy day astrologically starting with Uranus stationing direct. He's in partile square with your modern sign ruler, Pluto, and this station will prolong that aspect. In its simplest delineation this suggests a transformation in how you think about work. The square implies this has been a challenge and might include some disturbances and problems. If your birthday is right around November 5th this is likely to have the strongest effect. Saturn is parked on the cusp of your 2nd house which suggests the need for discipline in your finances and being responsible with regard to your possessions. If your birthday is around November 21 Saturn is parked on your natal Sun which is usually a less than cheerful influence.

A mere eighteen minutes and twenty-two seconds after Uranus stations the Sun goes into Capricorn marking the Summer Solstice in the Southern Hemisphere and Winter Solstice in the Northern Hemisphere and the start of a new season. This ingress chart is used primarily in weather forecasting such as you find in the Old Farmer's Almanac and with regard to mundane and geo-political astrology. There is a lot of energy in Capricorn at this time, your 3rd house of thoughts, ideas, siblings, neighbors and local travel. Capricorn is the natural ruler of corporations and government which suggests a lot will be coming forth from those areas. Pluto has been in Capricorn for several years now with his task to root out and expose corruption, which has certainly been doing. The square with Uranus suggests rebellion and disturbances on the part of individuals which place further stress on these entities.

Two hours, thirty two minutes and fifty seconds after the Capricorn Ingress the Moon joins the Sun for this month's New Moon. This suggests a new idea or something new related to your 3rd house as defined above. Those of you born around October 24 should watch for an opportunity to gather information or pursue a new idea, perhaps one that even constitutes a new beginning. Your traditional sign ruler, Mars, is in your 4th house of home environment, cultural roots, memories, endings and new beginnings which makes it a favorable time to take action and gather momentum on a new endeavor which could bring about an important change with regard to your work situation. This is going to require some help from someone close to you and perhaps letting go of an idea which is no longer working.

Saturn is poised to enter your 2nd house of income and possessions on December 24 which is likely to usher in a period of structuring this part of your life, instituting new discipline in your spending and taking responsibility for this part of your life. If you are already doing so then this will be less painful; if you have something to learn in this area then this could turn out to be a difficult time financially. Transits are the most noticeable when you have something to learn, usually something that isn't easy. If you have that part of your life figured out and under control then you essentially have immunity to the transit and it's less likely to be troublesome. Saturn as the Lord of Karma in particular can bring hard lessons.
