Lunations and Long-term Aspects

Most of this month Mercury will be retrograde which implies that it will be a month of rethinking, reconsidering, repairing, re-planning and redoing, at least from June 7 - 30 while this transit is in effect. Remember that this is a time you should avoid buying anything of a mechanical or electronic nature; if it moves or computes it probably won't function properly. This is particularly true of big ticket items such as major appliances, automobiles and computers which of course includes cell phones. Even the ones you have are more likely to misbehave than usual. Mercury throws it into reverse in Cancer, your 10th house of career, reputation, public image and status which suggests that at least some of this is going to relate to that part of your life. Looking more deeply into the station chart may provide a few more clues.

Mercury is in a closed loop aspect with the Moon and Neptune which brings in a variety of emotional factors between Mercury in emotional Cancer and the Moon in your sign. If your birthday is right around September 29 the Moon is conjunct your natal Sun which will deliver a stronger nudge from this event. Neptune is in Pisces, your 6th house of work, service, employees, health and pets which can provide some inspiration with regard to your best course of action. If you've been wondering which course to take with regard to job and career then this aspect pattern alone could provide some cosmic input that will prove helpful.

Mars, who just went direct May 20 after slowing things down for a couple months, is still in your sign and on your natal Sun for this stationing event if your birthday is right around October 5. As ruler of your 2nd house of income, possessions, needs and pleasures as well as your 7th house of relationships these matter are likely to be under consideration as well. Mars is linked up with your sign ruler, Venus and Pluto, which could provide some more input. Pluto is in fellow Cardinal Sign, Pluto, your 4th house of home environment, memory, cultural roots, endings and new beginnings. Pluto relates to power and control but he also excels at dredging up the past and calling attention to old, unresolved issues. This suggests that you may be having a problem moving forward with something due to problems related to your homelife, past or present. Venus in Taurus, your 8th house of transformations, sex, death and regeneration, debt, shared resources, inheritances and things you suppress is vying for resolution, trying to effect some important change in your outlook that could help get you unstuck.

Yet another aspect pattern is worth mentioning, a yod, a.k.a. "Finger of God," which often has fated implications. If your birthday is within a day or so of October 11 this is most likely to influence your situation. Saturn in nextdoor neighboring sign, Scorpio, and that 2nd house of money and such is at the eye. Saturn is retrograde as well, a time when restructuring or rebuilding something is rumbling around in your subconscious; in this house it is likely to relate to material or emotional security. Saturn also rules your 4th house, where Pluto is stirring things up, so it could also tie in there. The base of the yod comprises Uranus in Aries and the Sun in Gemini. Aries is your polar sign and 7th house of relationships which includes your significant other, close friends and relatives, business partners, business professionals, cliental, competitors and open enemies. Uranus tends to stir things up, bring a variety of surprises and disruptions and can also relate to unusual or unconventional people coming into your life.

Gemini is your 9th house of beliefs, expectations, higher learning, long-distance travel, other cultures, politics, religion and legal matters which the Sun's presence is currently highlighting. Thus, one possibly effect of this would be that your beliefs about relationships, perhaps even breakups which Uranus rules, could be at the root of your financial or security issues which in turn are showing up in some manner at home. Rethinking and reconsidering all this is probably what this Mercury retrograde period is all about for you. If everything is in order in these parts of your life than congratulations are in order because you are one of the lucky few not struggling with something in those areas these days.

The Full Moon on June 12 is in Sagittarius, your 3rd house of thoughts, ideas, siblings, neighbors and local travel and suggests an ending, culmination or shift to a new phase for something in this part of your life. Your beliefs, which evolve from your thoughts, were tied into that yod, so this lunation could stimulate the necessary thoughts to make adjustments to your belief system or attitude. Jupiter is tied into the lunation from your 10th house of career and status which could bring some assistance or luck that nudges you in the right direction, even though it may seem like an irritation or annoyance at the time. Your sign ruler, Venus, is opposing Saturn by now which implies the need for balance between two opposing forces, whether it's your income to debt ratio or possibly your needs. With Saturn in your 2nd house you may have been working overly hard lately to make a living and not taking care of yourself as you should. Reorganizing your priorities and maintaining balance between all facets of your life may be what this one is trying to tell you.

The New Moon on June 27 is in Cancer, your 10th house of career and status which implies something new coming your way in that department. Neptune is hooked into the lunation from your house of work, suggesting this will relate to your work. Your beliefs may get in the way again, further emphasized by the fact that by this time Mercury has backed into Gemini, suggesting you should rethink something related to your 9th house as described above. Mercury stations direct in Gemini and will trine your natal Sun if your birthday is right around October 18. Uranus is quincunx Saturn which implies an adjustment or change of course with a relationship which will impact your finances or personal needs and possible disrupt your personal plans. Nonetheless, it can all turn out for the best, even though it's going to take some effort to turn things around.
