Lunations and Long-term Aspects

This month note that your sign ruler, Mercury, goes retrograde June 7. This occurs in Cancer, your 11th house of groups, friends, organizations, networking, goals, hopes and wishes which suggests rethinking or reconsidering something in this part of your life. If your birthday is right around August 27 he stations retrograde sextile your natal Sun which will give this period more influence. Make it a point to take a look at anything in that part of your life that you need to tweak or rework; whatever you do, don't expect to make progress on something new or start any new endeavors because the chances are good that it will be a false start and you're going to have to redo it. On June 18 he continues his backward trek into Gemini, your 10th house of career, reputation, public image and status, bringing that influence there where he will station direct the end of the month. If your birthday is around September 17 he stations direct squaring your natal Sun which could have a bit of punch as well.

If your goals are being reworked and they relate to your career or status, when Mercury goes direct you can start putting everything together, at least as far as the preparatory stage is concerned, and start making progress again. Remember to refrain from buying anything electronic or mechanical during this time and expect to encounter some level of issues with communications, computers, cell phones and even mechanical items which tend to not operate to full capacity during this time. Traffic lights tend to me honked up and people's thought processes can be messed up as well. However, this is an excellent time to go back and finish something that's been sitting there for a while, editing, refining, repairing and so forth.

The Full Moon on June 12 is in fellow Mutable Sign, Sagittarius, your 4th house of home environment, cultural roots, memories, beginnings and endings. Watch for something to end, culminate or shift to a new phase at this time and considering that Mercury is retrograde at the time, this could point you toward whatever it is you need to rework. With the Moon quincunx Jupiter who has been transiting your house of goals and groups a change of direction appears quite likely. Saturn retrograde in your 3rd house of thoughts, ideas, siblings, neighbors and local travel suggests the need for something to be restructured which may prove important to the point of being life-changing. This could relate to something in your belief system, perhaps related to money, which may have been holding you back in some way.

For example, perhaps you believe that you aren't capable of earning the income you desire based on something from your past. Remember that successful people always leave a trail of failures behind with their success more related to perseverance and belief in their own ability than intelligence or luck. Uranus who typically brings breakthroughs, sudden change, surprises or a need for freedom has been hanging out in your 8th house of sex, death and regeneration, shared resources, things you suppress, debt and intense experiences which can be a rather disruptive combination. Stability is difficult to maintain with this influence and if your birthday is right around September 9 you are more likely to see some important changes of some sort. Taking action to make a few changes is favored and it appears that these could relate to your job in some way so if you've been thinking about that part of your life this is probably the nudge you need to no longer accept the status quo.

The New Moon on June 27 is in Cancer, your 11th house of goals, which reinforces getting ready to move in a new direction. Inspiration could come, perhaps from someone close to you whether it's your significant other, business partner, close friend or relative. It looks as if some effort will be required to bring things to fruition but if you're a typical Virgo you're hardworking and determined to do things right or not at all so a little challenge is usually accepted as a matter of course. If your birthday is right around August 29 it's even more likely that this lunation will bring a new opportunity your way so be on the lookout. This could come through a friend or other connections so get out there and socialize a bit and see what comes your way.
